Summary Report

Centre for Inclusion and Equal Access initiated to collaborate with Department of English & PG department of social work jointly organizes a program ‘Reweaving the world into an inclusive and equitable society’ on 15/02/2024. With concerning the insights of people for differently persons in social life, to foster the full participation in order to evict the dynamic barriers in the society for disabled. We invited a well-known highly experienced professor Mr.DEEPAK NATHAN. He has given a compressive understanding of social myths about disabled people through the topic: Disability Demystified – A self-Transformation. By depicting the models – Social, Medical & Charity.

Outcome:

This program made a significant impact on student’s perceptions about differently abled people. Enlightened our mentality to give equal space and to treat as normal individual. Regardless of theirage, gender and qualification society is treating them with a punch of pitying inside. He has entirely altered the perception of sympathetic discernment towards them. This session instilled a respectful understanding towards disabled people by incorporating them as ordinary individual.
