The 78th Independence Day celebration was marked by enthusiasm and respect. The event began with a prayer song, setting a solemn tone. Following this, the Tamil Thai Vaazhthu was sung, celebrating Tamil Nadu's heritage.

The Flag Hoisting Ceremony was led by the Principal and Vice Principals, officially marking the start of the festivities. The NCC students showcased their discipline in a well-executed march past.

In her address, the Principal highlighted the sacrifices of unsung heroines in India's freedom struggle. The NSS students added vibrancy with a series of performances, including a song and a dance.

A spirited student rally outside the campus, supported by the NCC and NSS, featured patriotic slogans chanted in three languages. Sweets were distributed among students and staff, adding a delightful flavor to the celebrations.

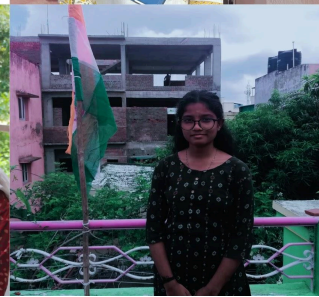

The celebration concluded with the national anthem, uniting everyone in a final patriotic salute. Overall, the 78th Independence Day was a blend of reflection, inspiration, and festivity, leaving a lasting impression on all who participated. The gesture brought smiles to everyone's faces, making the day even more special and memorable.
